Demographics

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

The Artist in Residence Program is a partnership with The Nature of Cities, and we value diversity, seeking to be inclusive and accessible to all applicants. For this reason, we request information on race/ethnicity and gender of all applicants. This helps us assess whether the program is recruiting from a diverse applicant pool.
